TWO PROMINENT LIBERTY LOAN SPEAKERS

Judge A. H. Moore, of Bryn Mawr, and Lieutenant Lloyd, a Canadian Officer, Speak in Narberth

In spite of the persistent inclement weather which prevailed last week the patriotic mass meeting scheduled for Thursday evening under the auspices of the Women's Committee of the third Liberty Loan was held in Elm Hall as originally planned.

The meeting was opened by the singing of the third Liberty Loan song, "What Are You Going to Do to Help the Boys?" by a quartet composed of Miss Crist, Mrs. Joseph Barclay, Miss Gertrude Wright and Mrs. Howard Hoffman, accompanied by Mrs. Nelson Moore at the piano, Mr. Burt violinist, and Mr. Abel, cello, the audience rendering the chorus with most enthusiastic spirit.

Hon. Fletcher W. Stites, acting as chairman, introduced Judge A. H. Moore, who delivered a very stirring patriotic speech. His address embraced many vital things at issue, pleading with us not to betray the faith of the boys who left our shores confident of our best support. He also laid great stress on the facts that the Anglo Saxon must win this war and that only two kinds of people now exist in the United States, the all-American and the pro-German. After the applause had subsided a most interesting hour followed listening to the story of Lieut Lloyd. He recounted many of the battles in which he had participated and it was particularly interesting to hear of the battle of Vimy Ridge from one who had actually been on the battlefield. Much credit is due the Women's Committee for their enthusiasm, persistent in its character, and for the good results they have obtained so far in this third Liberty Loan drive. Every women's organization in Narberth is represented in this committee. May the good work go on.

HOME OWNERS' ASS'N FORMED AT NARBERTH

An association of Narberth home owners has been formed. The object of the association is the protection of all home properties, and the active co-operation with Council, with the view to encouraging the passage and application of ordinances and rules looking to the betterment and improvement of the borough, particularly from a property owner's standpoint.

The association also hopes to aid in the settlement of any disputes that may arise between neighbors over matters of a semi-public nature, and to assist in the adjustment of property lines, and in other ways help protect properties that might be injured in any way by thoughtlessness on the part of others.

The association is open to any property owner in the borough of Narberth, and it is proposed that the organization shall not only co-operate with Council, but with the Civic Association and any other body that is interested in the welfare of Narberth.

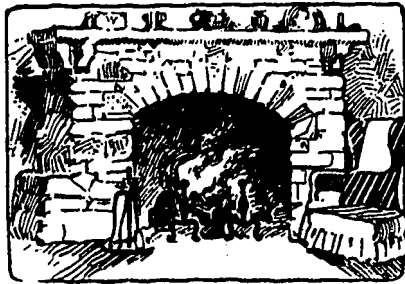

Any property owner desirous of learning more about the association or becoming a member may either write to the acting secretary, Samuel P. Bowman, Elmwood avenue near Essex, or he or she may attend the next meeting at Mr. Bowman's home next Monday night, at 8 o'clock.

TENNIS SEASON TO GET AN EARLY START

Members Hope to be Playing
This Saturday—Newly Elected
Officers and Other Association News

Assuming that the calendar is right, after all, and that it actually is April and not January, the Narberth Tennis Association will have a partial opening of the 1918 season this coming Saturday afternoon on the courts, at Elmwood and Essex avenues. By "partial" it is meant that two courts will be ready. If it hadn't been for the bad weather last week, all four courts would have been ready for use this Saturday.

At a special meeting of the association held last week, it was unanimously decided to increase the annual membership dues from $7 to $10, and the initiation fee from $1 to $5. These increases were made necessary by the general increase in the cost of materials used in putting the grounds in shape for the season, and the increased labor costs for maintenance.

A resolution was also unanimously passed, instructing Secretary Warwick to tender to the Narberth Liberty Loan Committee the use of the flag pole on the tennis grounds for flying the honor flag, which it is hoped our town will earn by exceeding its quota in the Liberty Loan. The club members realize that while the logical place to fly the flag in the event of its being awarded to Narberth is Elm Hall, where the borough officials have their headquarters, at the same time they thought that on account of the conspicuous location of the tennis association flag pole, it might be thought the desirable place to display the honor flag. As was said at the tennis meeting by one of the members, "My first thought was that the flag should fly on the pole at Elm Hall. But then it occurred to me that it could not be seen by the thousands of passengers on the trains passing through Narberth. Naturally, it is these folks that we want particularly to see the flag should we earn it, and it is for this reason that the association has felt that it was but right that we should offer the use of its flag pole to the Narberth Liberty Loan Committee."

The grounds committee made a complete report, showing the preliminary work that had been done toward getting the courts in shape for the opening of the season. So if it doesn't rain or snow or hail or anything else like that between now and Saturday, it is expected that at least two of the courts will be open for playing.

One Hundred and Forty-Two Years of Labor and Struggle

THE American people fought their first battles for liberty and the rights of self-government one hundred and forty-two years ago.

At that time, and for many years thereafter, their realization of their national aspirations and of the goal toward which they were really striving was vague and indistinct. But step by step they struggled onward and upward toward a light which grew clearer as their eyes and minds slowly opened to its significance. Today, as a result of their struggles and their sacrifices, we possess and enjoy our priceless American institutions.

These institutions must be preserved. The structure so laboriously reared in these one hundred and forty-two years will be utterly destroyed if we do not spring to its defense with every atom of our energy and determination. This is not a situation which may be trifled with, or evaded, or put off. It is one which must be met now—today—no matter what sacrifices it may entail, or what the cost may be.

EDITORIAL

We are all in it—every last one of us—whether we like it or not. And we will not get out of it until we win. The quickest way to win is for every man, woman and child to subscribe to the Liberty Loan and thus show Germany our undaunted determination.

When you have bought your bond don't stop. Become a bond salesman for your Government and see to it that your neighbor buys a bond. Explain to him that you and he have to do this, as the soldier at the front has to fight.

Russia failed to support its army and its army failed to fight for Russia, and today Germany is taking over thousands of square miles of rich farming and mineral lands, title to which is held by Russians who will have their deeds considered mere scraps of paper by their conquerors. Buy a bond from your Government and sell one for it. Make the United States a success instead of a failure like Russia.

The following extract was clipped from Monday's Public Ledger, under the heading of "Topics of the Town":

"Those other papers in Swarthmore and Ridley Park that you extolled may be all right," said H. C. Gara, president of the Gara-McGinley Company, "but don't overlook our little Narberth paper, now in its fourth volume."

He handed me several copies of Our Town published every Thursday by that very active body, the Narberth Civic Association. Two of the associate editors are women. The editor is Harry A. Jacobs.

Whether it's the Home Guard or the Liberty Loan or flowering trees or clean streets, the town is wide awake and up to the mark and the paper reflects its spirit.

I notice that one of the directors is the Hon. Fletcher W. Stites.

You know the Rev. Dr. Stites, of Cape May, author of the familiar hymn, "Beulah Land, Sweet Beulah Land"? Fletcher is his son.

Because Fletcher was an independent he got a seat in the last row in the Legislature at Harrisburg. From that modest relegation he made one of the best speeches heard in the House in a decade, at the ironic expense of the powers that be.

When he asked for a good seat, he says, he was told, "Well, then, you vote right." "What if I don't vote right?" "Then you'll be lucky if you get into the House at all." "Behold, a prophet hath arisen in Israel!" was Mr. Stites' humorous comment. "Look where I'm sitting now!"

SHORTEN THE WAR

The sooner the irresistible might of this great Republic is organized and put into full action the sooner the war will end. Every dollar invested in Government securities works to shorten the war, to save the lives of American soldiers and sailors.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

LIBERTY AND LABOR

The hope of labor lies in the opportunities for freedom; military domination, supervision, checks, bondage, lie in Prussian rule.

It is not through a German regime but through democracy that labor is to receive adequate recognition and its rightful place in the world.

LENDING THEIR BEST CUSTOMERS

The proceeds of the Liberty Loan, including the greater part of that loaned to our Allies, are being spent for American products—the products of our factories, our farms, our mines, and other industries. In lending to the United States the people of the United States are lending to their best and largest customer and obtaining the safest investment in the world.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

THE MONEY COMES BACK

The cycle of money invested in Liberty Bonds is short and complete. The people lend the money to the Government, the Government lends some to our Allies, and our Government and our Allies straightway spend the money, or the greater portion of it, among the people of the United States. In some instances the money paid in by wage earners on one installment of Liberty Bonds is paid by the Government to their employers, and by their employers paid back to them in the way of wages before the next Bond installment is due.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

Again it has been demonstrated that residents of Narberth are quick to grasp any suggestion of merit. It was only necessary for the Pennsylvania Railroad to keep a special officer on the eastbound platform one week to bring to the attention of Narberth commuters the dangers of boarding the moving trains.

Force of habit at times blinds one to the risks unconsciously taken in our daily work. A simple reminder to Narberth folks proved sufficient with the railroad company, for their officials, at the end of the week, reported a marked improvement.

A preventive, however, should be sought now that the cure lies in the placing of a "life saver" on the platform. Leaving home for the trains just one minute earlier will avoid any necessity or occasion for boarding moving trains. They never leave the station ahead of time and a wait of a minute or two on the station platform is infinitely preferable to waiting in a hospital.

DON'T CLOSE THE SCHOOLS; USE THEM

"Don't close the schools; use them to maximum capacity," says Secretary of the Interior Lane, approving a statement just issued by the Bureau of Education of his department, wherein is presented the Government's need of the schools in war time, as seen by those in Washington charged with the conduct of the war.

The statement says: "The entire spirit of the administration at Washington is, and has been from the beginning, that the war should in no way be used as an excuse for giving the children of the country any less education, in quantity or quality, than they otherwise would have had. Both the present demands of the war emergency and the prospective demands of the necessary readjustments inevitably to follow emphasize the need of providing in full measure for the education of all the people."

Regarding elementary schools, the statement says: "There appears to be nothing in the present or prospective war emergency to justify curtailment in any respect of the sessions of the elementary schools, or of the education of boys and girls under 14 years of age, and nothing which should serve as an excuse for interference with the progressive development of the school system. Teachers and pupils should be encouraged to find ways of performing in the schools some service having war value, such as activities connected with the Junior Red Cross, war garden work, Boy Scouts, war thrift work, and the like. Opportunities should be found to introduce into the school activities having real educational value, which at the same time link up the public schools with the ideals of service and self-sacrifice actuating our people, and bring home to the consciousness of teachers, pupils and parents the essential unity of the nation in this great crisis."

As to the Government's need of high school students, Secretaries Baker and Daniels point out that "the army and navy do not want, and can not use, boys under 18 years of age, nor boys nor men of any age who are not strong and well-developed physically. So far as the army any way are concerned, there is nothing more important than the schools can do than to keep going at full capacity, and at the same time to emphasize in every possible way their work in physical education. High school boys will render the best service of which they are capable by remaining in school until the completion of the high school course."

Agricultural labor is emphasized as the most immediate possibility for high school boys. "It can not be too strongly urged, however," says the statement, "that each pupil's case should be considered individually and that no pupils be excused from school for this purpose, except with the written consent of the parents, to accept specified employment by the school or by other proved agencies of the conditions of employment."

Civil Service officials are equally emphatic in their statement that nothing can be gained by shutting down the schools or by curtailing school facilities, but they suggest, since civil service positions have been filled by drawing workers from commercial and industrial houses, and also by drawing teachers from the schools, the schools could undoubtedly render a much needed service by organizing classes to train stenographers, typewriters, clerks and secretaries.

Regarding the need in industry, Government officials maintain that no emergency exists which justifies any relaxation of the laws safeguarding the working conditions of our young people. The official statement points out that there are serious shortages in industry already and more are anticipated, but "boys and girls under 18 years of age should not be used to make up these shortages any more than can possibly be helped. It is easier to provide approved working conditions on the farms than in the mill or factory."

"THE BLUE BIRD" TO BE SHOWN AT PALACE THEATRE

A photoplay of extraordinary interest will be shown to the patrons of the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, Thursday, April 25, when "The Blue Bird," an Artcraft feature, will be presented.

When Maurice Maeterlinck presented his "Blue Bird" to the world, less than a decade ago, it was acclaimed as one of the greatest gems of literature, and conceded to be the masterpiece of the great Belgian author, dramatist and poet. Up to the present time no film producer had dared pay the enormous amount demanded for the motion picture rights, and expend, in addition, the tremendous sum necessary to properly produce the play in films.

Tula Belle and Robin Macdougall, two clever kiddies well-known to picture patrons, are the children who search for the Blue Bird. Maurice Tourneur has won an enviable reputation as an artistic producer, and this spectacle has proved a subject in which his genius has been put to a severe test. Matinee, 3 P. CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Perhaps you noticed the article in last Thursday evening's Ledger wherein were given the alleged returns of the Main Line Liberty Loan Campaign. As I remember them, Wayne's figures were $104,000, and Ardmore, $58,000. There were several others, but Narberth was at the foot of the list and was credited with the munificent sum of $50. In my most charitable mood, I would place the responsibility for that misstatement on the shoulders of some ignoramus having access to the columns of the Ledger, but in view of some recent happenings the thing looks to me like a deliberate knock. The cartoon which appeared a couple of weeks ago in the Ledger we must admit was comical, but it was anything but a boost or a good ad. for this borough, and I do not believe was inserted in any spirit friendly to the people of this community.

When the returns are in, it will be found that Narberth has done her share in this Liberty Bond matter, even though a very large portion of her people subscribed through banking and other connection in Philadelphia, for which the borough gets no credit or publicity. If the exact figures were available, it might even be found that Narberth's subscription to the loan is greater in proportion to population and wealth than that of some of her snobbish and more pretentious neighbors.

Why didn't our good friend of the Ledger make a comparison between Narberth enlistments and those of the other stations on the local to Paoli?

It's only the man who does things who gets his name in the paper; hence John is with us again this week. The other day he bought three tickets for the senior play at the school; that is, he bought the tickets, but didn't know what they were for. When he reached home that evening his children boned him for the price of three tickets to the play aforesaid and he dug like the indulgent father he is. Later on, he took the tickets he had bought out of his pocket and—

After having spent an exceedingly dull winter in the cellar, Mr. Shand's snow shovel came forth to greet the robins, spring flowers and last week's snow storm, all at the same time. The poor old thing was rather rusty and stiff in the joints after its long period of idleness, but managed to make a pretty good job of cleaning the Narberth and Price avenues sidewalk. If it had only been allowed a little exercise during the winter months, its greeting from the sidewalk and from many pedestrians, to all of whom it had become almost an utter stranger, might have been more cordial.

It was a sad misfortune which befell the Honorable Burgess and Councilman Maddox's party at the movies last Saturday night, and the dollar might better have been invested in thrift stamps. It seems that these Town Fathers arrived late and, not knowing that the pictures were shown but once on an evening, they continued to sit and wait after the show had ended, expecting to make up on the second performance what they had missed on the first. For all I know, the party is still there, but if that kind of thing happened to me I'd sue the management for rain checks.

Bill Stone and Mike Wood were standing at the Y. M. C. A. corner when a lady with one of those new conservation dresses passed by. Wood turned to Stone, and Stone turned to Wood, whereupon they both turned to rubber Ows!

The boys and girls of Narberth are requested to protect the trees in Narbrook Park and inform Mr. Hill or Mr. Haws when they see anyone damaging the newly planted flowering trees. These trees will be the pride of the town in time, therefore help to protect them.

Montgomery County Deputy Controller William Irwin has tabulated interesting statistics regarding prisoners sent to the Eastern Penitentiary. In the last year ninety-five men were sent from the county at a cost of $9677, or 41 cents a day per man, as against but 33 cents a day the year previous.

The entertainment at the Methodist Church was a wonderful success. The church was crowded to the doors, and those taking part pleased the audience very much. Mrs. A. K. Siler and Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., deserve special mention. Lots of credit is due the Ladies' Aid for working up such a nice affair.

PREAMBLE AND BY-LAWS OF NARBERTH GUARD

Believing it our duty to set a patriotic example to the community, and for the instruction of those who will be called for service in the present World War, better fitting them for promotion; we have organized THE NARBERTH GUARD, for the purpose of protecting our homes and teaching military tactics and discipline in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the United States War Department.

By-Laws

THE FIRESIDE

terest these days. There are two Honor Rolls there. One contains the names of our boys who have gone to fight for us, and the other contains the names of those who buy Liberty Bonds of the third issue. This roll is growing daily.

Mr. A. E. Wohlert has just issued a very interesting catalogue describing fully his Japanese rose flowering cherry trees, in which is incorporated a short historical sketch of the plant, legends connected with the cherry blossoms of Japan, and botanical information of value from the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University.

Lieutenant Lawrence Hammond, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, and Mrs. Hammond spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Stephenson, of 319 Grayling avenue. Lieutenant Hammond was overseas in the trenches and over the top for one and a half years. He returns next month. There are only sixty of his original regiment surviving.

Some careless or malicious drivers have driven over the edges of the lawn in the park and a few have taken pleasure in using the centre of the park for a driveway. A severe penalty should be imposed upon these people when caught. Everyone is asked to help protect the park and inform Mr. Hill when they find anyone damaging the lawn and trees.

There will be a meeting of interest to everyone in Narberth Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock. The meeting is under the auspices of the Lower Merion district of the Montgomery County Sabbath School Association. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. There will be an interesting address. A discussion will follow the address.

Mrs. Howard Hoffman, of 3 Essex avenue, will teach a small class of piano pupils. This is a rare opportunity for those who wish to study or have their children study the piano, as Mrs. Hoffman is a graduate of the piano of Syracuse University, New York, and a thorough musician. The French class is progressing beautifully under the capable instruction of their teacher, Mrs. Abele.

When Maurice Maeterlinck presented "The Blue Bird" to the world it was acclaimed one of the greatest gems of literature. The photoplay will be shown next Thursday afternoon and evening at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore. The all star cast is headed by two clever kiddies, Tula Belle and Robin Macdougall, who are well known to picture patrons and are the children who search for the blue bird.

The United States Department of Agriculture again advises farmers to sell their hens gradually and not to glut the market immediately after April 20, when the restrictions against sale of hens is removed. Hens should be sold gradually. This will stabilize the market and bring better prices for them. It also will mean more eggs. Every laying hen at this season produces eggs at far less cost for feed than during the winter.

Mr. Albert Golze has declined the chairmanship of the Prize Competition Committee, and while the present chairman has consented to act until his successor has been selected, Mr. Wohlert has positively declined to serve for the present year, as he feels that some other person should assume the responsibility for one year at least; therefore it has been suggested that those interested nominate in Our Town the person they would like to see in charge.

Those who braved the storm Friday evening to attend the Senior Class play at the Narberth High School entitled "Mrs. Harwood's Help," were well repaid, as the production was most ably presented. As it was an "all star" cast, and each star was of about equal brilliancy, a critic would be obliged to give the entire cast credit for good work. Much credit is due the coach, Miss Boynston, for the selection of characters, who all took parts assigned to them most naturally.

In the mountains of Sweden in 1719, 7000 Swedes who were marching to attack Drontheim perished in a snow-storm.

A WAR MEASURE

The general secretary of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. has drafted a letter that should go into every home in Narberth and be acted upon by every family.

Dear—As the new general secretary (taking office on April 1), I was surprised when told that the population of Narberth was approximately 3000, and that the Y. M. C. A. membership was only about 250. If you will pardon a few details, I would like to tell you my reasons for believing that every person over 9 years of age should be a member of the Y. M. C. A.

First, it is an international institution. The strength and vision of the International Committee have made possible the service the association is rendering in the camps at home and "Over There," a service second to none. The foundation on which the Y. M. C. A. was built and still rests is "Association for Service." The givers of time and money greatly outnumber the "getters."

Juvenile crime is increasing by leaps and bounds in these days of laxness in moral and religious training, due to the stress of war. Figures prove this, not only in England, but in Massachusetts and other States in this country. Never in the history of the association was increased sacrifice needed at home more than at the present time. Let us take as our slogan, not "Because of the war we can't," but "Because of the war we must."

Coming back to our town, we must recognize the fact that the Y. M. C. A. building shelters the Red Cross Auxiliary, an active and faithful organization; the Girls' Patriotic League, active in the promotion of gardening and food conservation; the Boy Scouts, an organization with which everyone is in sympathy; all of these groups serving our country, and in addition the relief section of the Main Line Inter-Church Federation, the Civic Association, the Community Bible Class, and all the regular Y. M. C. A. groups.

Can you afford to withhold your support from an institution so essential to the patriotic and character building activities of the town for which I know you covet the BEST? The time has come when we can say that every good citizen of Narberth and the surrounding territory should feel proud to say that they carry a membership card in their pocket or pocketbook. President Wilson once said that any town could be judged by the strength of its Y. M. C. A.

I hope you will consider this as a personal appeal for your membership and the membership of each member of your family over 9 years of age. The earnest desire of our board of directors and active membership is that every individual will do his or her part, giving time, money, sympathetic co-operation; all of these or as many as lie within your power to give.

My earnest hope is that Narberth may "go over the top" this coming year in all things.

Sincerely,

Henry M. R. Bowen,
General Secretary.

Notes

Tape lines will be tried on one of the courts as an experiment.

Rose Light Channel, in Court No. 3, so named in honor of the intrepid navigator, Commodore Henry Rose, will be removed and the court put in A. No. 1 shape. When Commodore Rose heard of this improvement, he said, "Ain't that my luck! Just after I learn to navigate that gully they go and take it away from me."

"Pop" Burkhardt, last man on the courts last December, and steady member of the Indoor Club at the Y. M. C. A. all winter, declares he will be the first man on the courts this Saturday.

Jim Donnelly was seen pawing the ground around the station Monday morning and swinging his incensed racket, as though impatient for the week to pass around.

Bill Kirkpatrick is undecided as to whether to hire a dormitory in Caldwell & Company's real estate headquarters, or else a combination dressing and drawing room on the 4.15 or 4.45, for the entire summer, because, as he says, "You can't expect me to go all the way up to Montgomery pike and dress and some down to the courts again."

It is estimated on a conservative basis that the daylight saving law will give the members of the association an aggregate of 16,492 more minutes of tennis playing this summer than last summer.

And it is rumored, on very good authority, that the tennis association is forming a baseball team and that a great contest will be staged shortly on the local diamond. It is understood further that the game will be played for the benefit of the local Red Cross, and, as much publicity as possible is desired, it was decided to make quite a mystery of the affair, knowing full well that the greater the mystery, the greater the publicity. It is also hoped this will escape the eagle eye of the Cub, as we all know what he can do when it comes to writing up baseball nines composed of old timers.

SUFFRAGE NEWS

Buy a Liberty Bond.

The April meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage party was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Mulholland, 201 Chestnut avenue. The attendance was unusually large, and Mrs. A. M. Snyder, the leader for Montgomery County, addressed the meeting.

The Executive Council of the National American Woman Suffrage Association will hold a convention on Thursday and Friday in Indianapolis. Mrs. Lewis L. Smith, of Strafford, vice president of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association, and Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, of Media, State Legislative chairman, will represent this State at the council, when policies will be determined for the fall campaign. Plans for ratification campaigns will be made, should the suffrage amendment pass the Senate, which suffragists expect it will surely do. However, if the Senate should not pass the amendment, the Suffrage party will be prepared to campaign in the fall elections for those favoring the bills for the enfranchisement of women.

Have you subscribed to The Woman Citizen? Send $1 to Mrs. Charles Walter Young, Box 20, Narberth, Pa., and help the Suffragists reach the one hundredth subscription mark. The paper, which comes each week, is most interesting and instructive.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
